

Impact Statement: Pinkspiration is a multi award winning business working in the construction industry re-building empty spaces and empty shops whilst up skilling young people. There are over 380,000 empty spaces/empty shops and nearly 1 million young people unemployed.

We have up-skilled over 3,000 young people of which 70% are female and 30% male. Our aim is to actively encourage diversity within construction and engineering as part of Transforming Spaces: Design Factor.

Since launch we have Re-built 10 empty spaces with unique design for the community and supported 30 Business Start Ups. Our goal is to up skill 10,000 young people helping to move into training, employment or Starting Up. We place 10 young people and women every month into a variety of roles within the construction industry.

www.pinkspiration.co.uk or www.facebook.com/pinkspiration1

Number of young people up skilled in construction

Our model supports 5 apprentices per million.

Our Social Media reach is over 25,000 and strong media connections, our work broadcast to over 20 million on a global scale featuring on BBC and ITV.

Jane 25 “ I really enjoyed the experience working on Transforming Spaces: Design Factor, it gave me industry insight working in the construction industry and inspired me to set up my own business, I would recommend 10/10”

Client Comment “ The construction and design of our Community Hub was outstanding I would recommend working with Pinkspiration”

Pinkspiration can work with you and your company to support your CSR and diversity targets. Our work has added value to the local community and has seen significant social return on investment, this value is estimated to have generated around £1.1 million of economic growth.

Average contract Value

